EXPLORING JEWISH CLEVELAND

from 1850-1950

with NATE ARNOLD

Sunday, August 12, 2012 - 10:30 - 4:30

Travel with us as we explore Jewish life in "early Cleveland". Armed with historical facts and anecdotes, local expert Nate Arnold will take us through 100 years of Jewish life in Cleveland. We'll board a bus and together we will explore the old neighborhoods of the Downtown Market Area, Woodland-East 55th, Glenville and Kinsman to see where our ancestors settled. We'll explore cemeteries, former synagogues and the Hebrew Cultural Garden. We will see the former locations of B'nai Jeshurun on Eagle Street (Progressive Field) and Wilson Avenue (now 55th Street). We will enjoy a provided Kosher Box Lunch. We will see how our forefathers lived, earned their livelihoods and prayed. This promises to be an educational and delightful day.

$ 25-Men's Club Members / $ 30-Non-Members

Fee includes bus transportation, guide, water, snacks and Kosher Box Lunch.

Meet by The B'nai Jeshurun front entrance at 10 AM.

Registration deadline is July 30, 2012.
