Purim Carnival Volunteers Needed!

We are looking for teens and adults to help out at our annual Purim Carnival, which is taking place on Sunday, March 13 from 11:30 am -1:30 pm. There are still many shifts available. Any teen who helps the entire time and also helps clean up afterwards will receive "double volunteer hours!" Contact Melissa Canowitz (mecosu@sbcglobal.net) and help make our carnival the best ever!

Anyone Can Donate to Sisterhood Torah Fund!

At Sisterhood Shabbat, we heard moving comments from Rabbinic Intern
Lauren Henderson regarding the amazing experiences she has benefited from by virtue of your past contributions. This is an important initiative that helps ensure the future of our clergy and Jewish leadership. Contribute now and receive a beautiful pin and 10 cards. Please make checks payable to B'nai Jeshurun Sisterhood memo Torah Fund and mail to the synagogue, attention Lynne Friedman.

The Torah Fund luncheon will be held on Tuesday, April 12 at noon at Park Synagogue East.

Purim at B'nai Jeshurun!

Vashti's Banquet

Red Cross Blood Drive
Sunday, March 13 • 9 am - 2 pm

The need for blood is constant and only volunteer donors can fulfill that need for patients in our community. Nationwide, someone needs a unit of blood every 2 to 3 seconds and most of us will need blood in our lifetime. Thank you for supporting the American Red Cross blood program! Appointments may be made at redcrossblood.org.

Shushan's Dueling Piano Bar
Saturday, March 19 • 8:30 - 11:00 pm

We're shaking up our Purim celebration with a live sing-along piano bar featuring Mark Freiman and Alan Douglass, an open bar and light snacks. 21 & over only. $10 per person before March 17; $12 after and at the door. Cost includes open bar and nosh. NCAA March Madness games will be available. RSVP at bnaijeshurun.org/duelingpianos.

Queen Esther's Candyland
Sunday, March 20 • 2 pm

A Mishpachot program for kids ages 2 - 6 with parents. Make your own mishloach manot chocolates and treats for Purim at Ellie's. $8 for one box of handmade candy; free to spectators. RSVP by March 15 on the BJC website or to jmsukert@hotmail.com. Ellie's Sweets & Chocolates is located at 14486 Cedar Rd., corner of Green & Cedar.

Mishloach Manot Deliveries
March 20 & 21

Take part in a mitzvah by delivering Purim baskets. A wonderful opportunity for the whole family! Sunday, March 20 at 10 am - meet in the lobby at Menorah Park; Monday, March 21 at 11 am - meet in the lobby at Montefiore. We also need help delivering baskets to some of our members who live on their own and could use a little Purim cheer. Contact Eliana LeVine (leown@aol.com) if you would like to help.

Megillah Readings & Festivities
Wednesday, March 23 • 7 pm

Family and traditional Megillah readings with a costume parade, followed by music, dancing and hamentashen!

Morning Minyan Megillah Reading and Breakfast Thursday, March 24 • 7 am

We'll read the Megillah one more time, and then wind down with breakfast and hamentashen.

Mixology 101
at the Fairmount Martini and Wine Bar
Thursday, March 24 • 7:30 pm

Join us as we continue our Purim celebration by learning how to make different concoctions and sample them, too! The cost is $12 which includes demonstrations, sampling and one drink. RSVP and find out more on our ATID Facebook page (<https://www.facebook.com/groups/AtidBnaiJeshurun/>) or contact Shani Kadis.

BHRS Purim Raffle

Support our annual Purim 50/50 Raffle to raise money to continue the good work of our religious school. One half of the money collected will be used for school needs, while the other half will be distributed as prize money. Contact Wendy Altmire to purchase or sell tickets. Drawing date will be Sunday, March 13 at the Purim Carnival. Winners need not be present.

Spring into Reading & Dinner
Friday, March 4 • 5:45 pm
Dennis Children's Library

A time for parents and youngsters to share the joys of exploring books together, followed by the Shabbat evening service featuring Zamir Children's Choir. New! This program is now free, but limited to 18 families. Dinner includes chicken, salad, side dishes and dessert; vegetarian upon request. RSVP by March 1 to the synagogue office or on our website.

BJUSY Trapped!
Saturday, March 5 • 7:15 pm

Sixty minutes to escape! Join us for this fully interactive gaming experience. Questions? Contact Evan Shaw (216-870-0937 or shaw.els97@gmail.com). $10 member; $15 non-member.

Be prepared to B-Well this year! Every other month you'll have an opportunity to meet with a group to exercise together, whether we go outside running or walking, learn some yoga, dance Israeli, meet at the gym and play basketball or jump in the pool and swim laps! The in-between months will be comprised of educational seminars that will teach you various important fitness lessons.

Join us for Sunday morning minyan and breakfast at 8:00 am.; programs will begin at 9:00 am. Exercise groups will meet April 17, June 5 and August 7. Seminars will be held as follows:

March 13: Couch Potato to 5K seminar with Robert Zelwin, our congregant and expert runner. Robert has been running since October 1977; he has run over 63,000 miles, competed in 45 marathons (including the Boston Marathon numerous times) and over 250 races. He has helped train over 50 people to run marathons and ran the Columbus Marathon with his three sons in 2008. He founded the Jewish Welfare Fund Run, aka the Julie Kravitz Run, in 1979.

May 15: Nutrition seminar

July 10: Fitness seminar

September 18: B-WELL 150th 5K RUN/WALK

Dates and session topics are subject to change.

A song-filled, participatory lay-led minyan that welcomes experienced davenners and those newer to prayer who are looking for a more intimate service. Opportunities are available to lead services, Torah discussions and chant Torah; if interested, please contact Rabbi Hal Rudin-Luria. Open Tent Minyan meets the first Shabbat of every month.

When Moses Finally said "No!" to God
by Dr. Shaiya Rothberg, Conservative Yeshiva Faculty

The prophet Isaiah emphasized that mysterious are the ways of God and rarely are divine intentions just what they seem (Isaiah 45:15, 55:8). A close reading of this week's Torah portion suggests that under the surface of the story may lay just the kind of hidden agenda that the prophet means.

After inviting Moses into a "devouring fire" at the top of the mountain in front of all Israel, God keeps him up there for forty days and forty nights (Ex. 24:12-18). One can't but suspect that God was well aware that by the time Exodus 32:1 rolled around, the people would think Moses dead and themselves abandoned in the desert. Sure enough, "The people saw that Moses didn't come back and so they gathered around Aaron and said 'Get up! Make us a God! ...because this man Moses, we don't know what's happened to him...' Was God really surprised?

Furthermore, God's response to the calf is more than a little strange. God says to Moses, "Now allow me [ וְעַתָּה הַנִּיחָה לִּי ] to let my anger destroy them and I'll make you into a great nation" (32:10). "Allow me"!? Since when does God, about who it is said "God gives no account of any of God's doings" (Job 33:13), ask permission to do anything? And one wonders whether God's offer to make a new nation out of Moses was a test. Would Moses take the bait? In truth, Moses' answer seems a little weak. He more or less says (Exodus 32:11-14), "God, it will be really bad for Your image in Egypt if you kill them all now." One might have expected a more principled argument, as Avraham had raised before God at Sdom (Gen 18:23): 'Will You sweep away the innocent along with the guilty?'

In Exodus 32:32, after Moses had more time to think about God's threat/offer, he revises his position. He says to God: "Now, if you forgive them - great, but if not, erase me from the book that You have written!" There's a lot of chutzpah in that statement. Moses essentially said, "Sure, you can kill them if you want, but I refuse to be the father of your new nation!" Maybe then God said to God's self: "Finally, he's growing a backbone! I'm not sure how much more idle talk, about bad public relations I could take!"

God's next move points to the same hidden agenda. In Exodus 33:3, God makes it clear that while obliterating the people is off the table, God is leaving Israel and will send an angel instead. The people mourn and Moses immediately removes the Tent of Meeting (with God) from the Israelite camp (33:7). But then a period of negotiation between Moses and God begins (33:12-21). Verses 33:14-15 are difficult to interpret.

Following Rashi, we might render them like this: "OK", God says in verse 14, "I agree to move back in". "That's good", responds Moses in verse 15, "because if you don't move back in, I quit!" Perhaps at this point God leaned back and said, "I think he's gotten the hang of telling Me off. The goal of this lesson has been achieved!"

Table Talk

by Vered Hollander-Goldfarb, Conservative Yeshiva Faculty

We are in the story of the Mishkan (Tabernacle) but taking a break to see what the people are doing while Moshe is up on the Mountain receiving the tablets. Here comes the Golden Calf!

1) The Torah allows for a census in a creative way. How will we know how many people are in the nation? What is the purpose of giving this silver (30:11, 15)? What is this silver to be used for (30:16)? Keeping all this in mind, why is the wealthy not allow to give more, and the poor not give less?

2) As we come to the end of the instructions for building the Mishkan (Tabernacle), laws and reasons for Shabbat are presented (31:12-17). Shabbat is a sign between God and the people. What is it a sign of? What is the reason for Shabbat, according to what is written here? Why does this appear at the end of the instructions of building the Mishkan?

The story of the golden calf and its consequences take up about 3 chapters. These questions touch on a few points.

3) When the story begins Moshe has been up on Mount Sinai for nearly 40 days, receiving the tablets. Read 32:1. What do the people want Aaron to do and why do they want him to do it? Do you think that this was this a rejection of God or an attempt to connect to God?

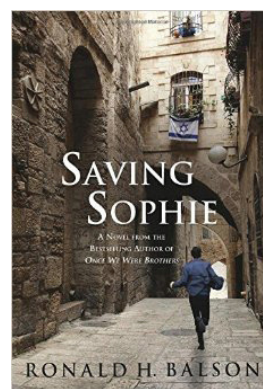

4) God is furious with the people's actions (why?) and wants to destroy them (32:7-10). Moshe (still up on the mountain) approaches God with 2 arguments against killing the people. What are his arguments? Neither argument has anything to do with the merit of people themselves. Why does Moshe not try to speak well of the people to God?

5) When Moshe comes down and sees the dancing around the calf, he throws down the tablets and breaks them (32:19). Why do you think that he did this? Do you think that he was right to do so? Why?

May He who blessed our ancestors and is the source of all healing bless and heal those who are ill. May the Holy One Praised Be He mercifully restore them to vigor and lift the burden of anxiety from their loved ones and friends.

On this (Sabbath, Festival, Judgment or Penitence) day we pray that they be spared further pain. May God grant them health of body and health of spirit and mind. May we speedily be privileged to greet their return to good health by welcoming them once again into our midst. Let us say: Amen.

Anyone wanting to add a name to the list should contact Diane Shalom (216-831-6555 ext. 104 or dianeshalom@bnaijeshurun.org) by Thursday afternoon at the latest for inclusion in that Shabbat's program. We will also pause during the prayer for people to recite additional names from their seats.
