Dessert Baking with Rachel Schwarz (September 22)

For the cooking classes, space is limited and there is a $10 per person materials fee for each session.

8 pm Offerings

Zichronot and Memories with Rabbi Shalom Plotkin

Teshuvah: Repentance and Renewal

with Rabbi Hal Rudin-Luria (September 15) and Rabbi Stephen Weiss (September 22)

Mahzorim: You're Covered

Thanks to the generosity of Gayl & Alan Berger and family, you do not need to buy copies of the new High Holy Day prayer book, Lev Shalem, which we are now using. Gayl & Alan have donated 2,500 mahzorim to the congregation, to be held at the synagogue and used each year. When you come to synagogue, you will find your prayer book in the seat pocket in front of you (in the David J. Moskowitz Sanctuary) or on your seat (in Rosenthal Auditorium and at Gross Schechter Day School). We ask that you treat these books with great care and leave them in the pocket or on the seat upon completion of each service so they may be collected and stored from year to year. We are collecting the Mahzor Hadash prayer books for donation. Contact Rafi Simon for more information, or just bring them in.

Tashlikh

Monday, October 3 • 4:45 pm

B'nai Jeshurun and Shaarey Tikvah will join together for our annual Tashlikh service on the afternoon of the first day of Rosh Hashanah. Please park at B'nai Jeshurun or Shaarey Tikvah and we'll walk together to the private residence for this special service. Join us for Rosh Hashanah Mincha (afternoon) service at B'nai Jeshurun, immediately following Tashlikh.

Coffee Talk with Chef Jeremy Umansky: Preserving Passion

Monday, October 3 • 11 am

Join Atid for a lively discussion. A light nosh will be served.

Cemetery Memorial Services

Sunday, October 9

One of the customs of the High Holy Day season is to visit the graves of our loved ones. Join our clergy for our annual memorial services.

10:30 am Chesterland Memorial Park 12:00 pm Glenville Cemetery

Lulav & Etrog Sets for Sukkot

Blessing the lulav and etrog is the Jewish way of thanking God for the blessings of the earth during Sukkot. To purchase your own lulav and etrog set, please contact Diane Shalom by Monday, September 26. Late orders may not be able to be filled. Deluxe sets are $45 each and student (smaller) sets are $40 each. Orders may be picked up in the synagogue office on Thursday and Friday, October 13 and 14 between 9 am and 3 pm.

A Friendly Reminder...

At least 25% of the current year's dues plus all prior obligations must be paid before High Holy Day tickets will be provided. If you are unable to pay this amount, please contact Jay Ross, executive director, to discuss your situation.

Kosher Food Drive

"This is My chosen fast. . . Share your bread with the hungry, take the homeless into your home; clothe the naked when you see them, do not turn away from people in need."

- Isaiah 58:6

Between Selichot and Sukkot, we ask each family to bring in non-perishable food to the synagogue to place in the collection bins in Gross Atrium or at the school entrance. All food will be donated to the JFSA Food Pantry. Please do not bring in expired food.

October 15: Leadership Shabbat
October 29: Clergy Shabbat

Journey to our Roots:

A Jewish Heritage Tour of Budapest, Slovakia,
Prague, Berlin and Vienna
with Rabbi Weiss • June 2017

B'nai Jeshurun was founded as "The First Hungarian Congregation of Cleveland" and to this day a large percentage of our families trace their roots back to this region. In celebration of the 150th anniversary of the synagogue, we are returning to trace those roots, explore our heritage and learn about contemporary Jewish life in the "old country." In addition to exploring major cities, we will attempt to visit where you came from wherever possible. If you are interested in joining us, please contact Rabbi Weiss or Diane Shalom. We hope to have a package in place soon.
